

MFDA Announces 2020 Scholarship Recipients

The Metropolitan Fastener Distributors Association (MFDA) announced the 2020 MFDA Scholarship award winners:

MFDA Board of Directors Scholarship ($3,000) – Melahny Navarro, daughter of Darlene Pantoja of Star Stainless Screw Company.

MFDA Hall of Fame Scholarship ($2,000), given in honor of inductees Irwin Tanzman and Christopher George – Camryn Hoagland, daughter of Bridget Miller of Elgin Fastener Group.

Navarro

Hoagland

Tanzman Family Scholarship ($2,000) - Melahny Navarro, daughter of Darlene Pantoja of Star Stainless Screw Company.

Star Stainless Screw Scholarship ($2,000) – Joseph Thomas, son of Lisa DePalma of Tower Fasteners Corp.

Yellow Woods Scholarship ($1,500) – Joseph Thomas, son of Lisa DePalma of Tower Fasteners Corp.

Thomas

Metric & Multistandard Components Company Scholarship ($1,500) – Jaylin Perez, daughter of José Ernesto Perez Jimenez of Captive Fasteners Corporation.

Perez

Bob Rundle Memorial Scholarship ($1,500) – Jaylin Perez, daughter of José Ernesto Perez Jimenez of Captive Fasteners Corporation.

Along with the named scholarships above, the MFDA would like to recognize and thank the members and friends who donated to the drive the year: Fastbolt Corp, Eurolink FSS LLC, Kanebridge Corporation, Baco Enterprises Inc, Brighton Best International, Nylok LLC, Fall River Mfg Co, Inc. and Michael F. McCormick Associates, Inc.

2020 marked the 41st anniversary of the MFDA's scholarship program. While the Association wishes it could have presented these awards in person to these very deserving candidates, it looks forward to hearing about their exploits as they achieve their goals in college.